

NEW

Trojan

Noise Nuisance Recorder

Dogs barking?
Loud music?
Banging doors?

No nonsense noise recording.

There's now an easy way to measure noise nuisance:

- Simple set up with intuitive screen instructions and automatic startup
- Discreet - Compact size for discreet installation
 - Unit disguised in a plain rucksack
- Wireless remote control for simple operation by the user*
- Highest quality uncompressed audio for stronger evidence collection
- Includes easy to use reviewing software with free lifetime updates and licence free installation

 Cirrus
Research plc
dedicated to noise measurement

*wired version also available

No nonsense noise recording.

- Pre and post trigger functions for capturing impulsive noise and identifying spurious complaints
- Simultaneous measurement of all parameters so no data is missed
- Automatic re-start after power failure prevents data loss
- Memory expandable up to 64GB for long term measurements
- Class 1 real-time analyser for the most accurate measurements possible
- Automatic audio calibration allows recordings to be played back at the correct volume
- Up to 12 years full manufacturers warranty
- Designed, manufactured, supported and calibrated in the UK
- Includes a full, unlicensed copy of the Noise Tools software for both you and your Local Authority

Trojan

Noise Nuisance Recorder

Simple, effective measurement of noise nuisance for Housing Associations.

From just £4,495 for a complete system with calibrator, software and all accessories.

Find out how simple measuring noise nuisance can be with a FREE no-obligation demonstration.

Call us now on 0845 230 2434
or visit www.cirrus-trojan.co.uk/cih

